Introduction

The Privacy Act (Revised Statutes of Canada, Chapter A-1, 1985) was proclaimed on July 1, 1983. The Privacy Act (the “Act”) extends to individuals the right of access to information about themselves held by federal institutions, again subject to specific and limited exceptions. The law also protects the individual’s privacy by preventing others from having access to personal information and gives individuals substantial control over its collection and use.

Canada Eldor Inc. became subject to the Privacy Act, on September 1, 2007.

This Annual Report to Parliament on the administration of the Privacy Act is prepared and tabled in Parliament in accordance with section 72 of the Act and covers the period from April 1, 2017 to March 31, 2018.

Mandate of the Institution

Canada Eldor Inc. (“CEI” or the “Corporation”) was incorporated under the Canada Business Corporations Act. CEI was acquired in 1995 and is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Canada Development Investment Corporation (“CDEV”). The Corporation which has no operations is responsible for servicing liabilities, chiefly arising from an agreement of purchase and sale with the Cameco Corporation entered into in 1988.

CEI does not engage with the general public in the normal course of business.

During the period April 1, 2017 to March 31, 2018, the Corporation did not borrow from the Government nor did it receive any appropriations.

Organizational Structure and Delegation Order

Since CEI has no employees, management of CDEV undertake all managerial functions. The Access to Information and Privacy (“ATIP”) Coordinator is a full-time CDEV employee, dedicated part-time to CEI’s ATIP activities. The ATIP office consists of the Coordinator and an ATIP analyst with no other regional offices or employees. CDEV also retains advice from an independent consultant as needed.

The ATIP Coordinator is the point of contact on issues involving the collection of personal information and privacy.

The Delegation of Authority Order (Appendix A) that was approved on September 11, 2015 remained in effect throughout the reporting period. The order was renewed on May 24, 2018. The authority to approve or deny the release of information under the Act is shared by the Executive Vice President and the ATIP Coordinator. The ATIP Coordinator normally performs the function, with the exception of disclosures pursuant to paragraphs 8(2)(e) and 8(2)(m) of the Act, which are handled by the Executive Vice President.

Highlights of the 2017-18 Statistical Report

Appendix B provides a summarized statistical report on the requests for personal information received under the Privacy Act from April 1, 2017 to March 31, 2018. The Corporation received no requests under the Privacy Act during the reporting period. Since becoming subject to the Privacy Act in September 2007 Canada Eldor Inc. has not received any requests under the Act or any consultations from other institutions.

CEI has never conveyed personal information to federal investigative agencies pursuant to the provisions of the Privacy Act.

Privacy Impact Assessments

No Privacy Impact Assessments were conducted during the reporting period.

Information Holdings

The ATIP Coordinator is responsible for providing a full accounting of the Corporation's information holdings to the Treasury Board Secretariat and ensures that updates are provided on a timely basis for inclusion in the Info Source publications.

The Info Source publications contain a description of the classes of corporate records held by Canada Eldor Inc. The Corporation does not have any exempt banks. The Corporation's Info Source chapter is published on CDEV's website at www.cdev.gc.ca.

Website

CEI does not maintain a public website however CDEV, its parent corporation, has a website: www.cdev.gc.ca. The website provides information on ATIP matters for CDEV and its subsidiaries.

Reading Room

CEI does not maintain a formal reading room as it occupies only minimal office space. However, in accordance with the Privacy Act, the Corporation will make arrangements to provide facilities for viewing material on an as required basis.

Training and Awareness

In April 2017, an independent consultant provided a one day information session on the Access to Information and Privacy Acts to all CDEV employees, including two ATIP staff.

Policies, Guidelines, Procedures and Initiatives

CDEV's privacy policy, which applies to CEI, is reviewed by the board of directors on an annual basis and amended as required. The privacy policy was last reviewed in June 2017.

There were no new and/or revised institution-specific privacy-related policies, guidelines, procedures or initiatives implemented in the institution during the reporting period.

Monitoring Compliance

There were no requests to monitor during the reporting period.

Material Privacy Breaches

There were no material privacy breaches during the reporting period.

Costs

Total costs associated with activities related to the administration of the Privacy Act for this reporting period are nil.

Summary of Key Issues and Actions Taken on Complaints or Audits

No complaints were received and no audits or investigations were concluded during the reporting period.

Public Interest Disclosure

The Corporation has never received any requests nor made any disclosures under paragraph 8(2)(m) of the Privacy Act.

Use and Disclosure

The intent and requirements of the Privacy Act and Treasury Board guidelines regarding the collection, use, disclosure, retention and disposal of personal information are strictly adhered to by the Corporation. Individuals sharing responsibility for the management of the Corporation are aware of their responsibilities for the proper management of personal information holdings and the Corporation respects the Use and Disclosure Code.

Furthermore, the Access to Information and Privacy Coordinator must be notified where personal information in a personal information bank is used or disclosed for a use consistent with the purpose for which the information was obtained or compiled, but was not identified in the statement of consistent uses published in Info Source.
